

Tonight there is praise and worship with “Damascus Road” at Mt. Lebanon Campmeeting and the King’s Brass are in concert at the Mt. Gretna tabernacle. Both services are at 7:00.

This is Campmeeting Week at Mt. Lebanon. There will be renewal services, morning Bible study with Rev. Rod Shearer, musical and dramatic events, daily programs for children and youth, and homemade meals in the Dining Hall every day. Pick up a brochure on the information table.

Our Administrative Council meets tomorrow evening at 6:30.

Next Sunday Pastor Lynch speaks on Psalms 40:1-3, “Trust God When You Feel Lonely.” A trio of recorders will bless us with special music.

On Sunday July 31 we meet for outdoor worship and picnic at 10:00 at the pavilion just south of Annville on Church Road off of Route 934. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share. Hot dogs, barbeque, drinks and place settings will be provided. There is a sign-up sheet to indicate if you are bringing a side dish or dessert on the information table. We will worship with Rachel Nicholson, enjoy some games and then we eat! For your comfort, bring lawn chairs. Anyone needing a ride, contact Dick Lasher.

Dear Bethany Congregation: Thank you for the graduation prayer book. It was a very thoughtful gift which I appreciate. Sincerely, Alyce Laraia.

The church office will be open on Tuesday and Thursday 8-10.
